THE INTERNAL REVENUE ACT.

OFFICIAL

Laws of the United States.

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 97.]

An Act to provide internal revenue to support the Government and to pay interest on the public debt.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where the property liable to distraint for duties or taxes under this act may not be divisible so as to enable the collector by a sale of part thereof to raise the whole amount of the tax with all costs, charges and commissions, the whole of such property shall be sold, and the surplus of the proceeds of the sale after satisfying the duty or tax costs and charges shall be paid to the owner of the property or his, her or their legal representatives, or if he she or they cannot be found or refuse to receive the same then such surplus shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to be held for the use of the owner, or his heirs or their legal representatives, until he, she, or they shall make application therefor to the Secretary of the Treasury who upon such application shall by warrant on the Treasury cause the same to be paid to the applicant. And if the property advertised for sale as aforesaid cannot be sold for the amount of the duty or tax due thereon with the costs and charges, the collector shall purchase the same in behalf of the United States for an amount not exceeding the said tax or duty with the costs and charges thereon. And all property so purchased may be sold by said collector under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. And the collector shall render a distinct account of all charges incurred in the sale of such property, and shall pay into the Treasury the surplus, if any there be, after defraying the charges.

SEC. 21. And be it further enacted, That in any case where goods, chattels, or effects sufficient to satisfy the duties imposed by this act upon any person liable to pay the same shall not be found by the collector or deputy collector whose duty it may be to collect the same, he is hereby authorized to collect the same by seizure and sale of real estate and the officer making such seizure and sale shall give notice to the person whose estate is proposed to be sold by giving him in hand, or leaving at his last and usual place of abode if he has any such within the collection district where said estate is situated, a notice, in writing stating what particular estate is proposed to be sold, describing the same with reasonable certainty and the time when and place where said officer proposes to sell the same, which time shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty days from the time of giving said notice; and the said officer shall also cause a notification to the same effect to be published in some newspaper within the county where such seizure is made if any such there be, and shall also cause a like notice to be posted up at the post office nearest to the place of residence of the person whose estate shall be so seized and in two other public places within the county, and the place of said sale shall not be more than five miles distant from the estate seized. At the time and place appointed the officer making such seizure shall proceed to sell the said estate at public auction, offering the same at a minimum price including the amount of duties with the ten per centum additional thereon, and all charges for advertising and an officer's fee of ten dollars. And if no person offers for said estate the amount of said minimum the officer shall declare the same to be purchased by him for the United States and shall deposit with the District Attorney of the United States a deed thereof, as hereinafter specified and provided; otherwise the same shall be declared to be sold to the highest bidder. And said sale may be adjourned by said officer for a period not exceeding five days, if he shall think it advisable so to do. If the amount bid shall not be then and there paid the officer shall forthwith proceed to again sell said estate in the same manner. If the amount bid shall be then and there paid the officer shall give his receipt therefor, if requested. And within five days thereafter he shall make out a deed of the estate so sold to the purchaser thereof and execute the same in his official capacity, in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State in which said estate may [be] situated, in which said deed shall be recited the fact of said seizure and sale, and the cause thereof, the amount of duty for which said sale was made, and of all charges and fees, and the amount paid by the purchaser, and all his acts and doings in relation to said seizure and sale, and shall have the same ready for delivery to said purchaser, and shall deliver the same accordingly upon request thereof. And said deed shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of the facts stated therein, and if the proceedings of the officer as set forth have been substantially in pursuance of the provisions of this act shall be considered and taken as a conveyance to the purchaser of the title to said estate but shall not affect the right of third persons acquired previously to the claim of the United States under this act. The surplus, if any, arising from such sale shall be disposed of as provided in this act for like cases arising upon sales of personal property. And any person whose estate may be seized for duties as aforesaid shall have the right to pay or tender the amount due, with all proper charges thereon, prior to the sale thereof, and thereupon to relieve his said estate from the seizure aforesaid, as is provided in this act for personal property similarly situated. [illegible] any collector or deputy collector may, for the collection of [illegible] imposed upon any person by this act and [illegible] to him for collection, seize and sell the lands of such person situated in any other collection district within the State in which said officer resides, and his proceedings in relation thereto shall have [illegible] effect as if the same were had in his proper collection district, and the owners, their heirs, executors or administrators, or any person having an [illegible] therein, or any person on their behalf, [illegible] liberty to redeem the land sold as aforesaid [illegible] one year from and after recording the deed [illegible] upon payment to the purchaser [illegible] found in the county where the land is [illegible] to the collector for the use of the purchaser his heirs or assigns, of the amount paid by the purchaser with interest on the amount [illegible] twenty per centum per annum. And it shall be the duty of every collector to keep a record of all sales of land made in his collection district, whether by him or his deputy, in which shall be set forth the tax for which any such sale was made, the dates of seizure and sale, the name of the party [illegible] and all proceedings in making such sale, the amount of fees and expenses, the name of the purchaser, and the date of the deed; which record shall be certified by the officer making the sale. And it shall be the duty of any deputy making such sale to return a statement of all his proceedings to the collector, and to certify the record thereof. In case of the death or removal of the collector, or the expiration of his term of office from any other cause, said record shall be delivered to his successor in office; and a copy of every such record certified by the collector or by the clerk, as the case may require, shall be evidence in any court of the truth of the facts therein stated. And when any land sold as aforesaid shall be redeemed as herein provided, the collector or clerk, as the case may be, shall make an entry of the fact upon the record aforesaid, and the said entry shall be evidence of such redemption. And the clerk of the [illegible] ment to land sold under and by virtue of the foregoing provision shall be held [illegible] the time of seizure thereof.

SEC. 22. And be it further enacted, That if any collector shall find upon any list of taxes returned to him for collection property lying within his district which is charged with any specific or ad valorem tax or duty, but which is not owned, occupied or superintended by some person known to such collector to reside or to have some place of business within the United States, such collector shall forthwith take such property into his custody, and shall advertise the same and the tax charged upon the same [illegible] published in his district, [illegible] otherwise in some [illegible] adjoining district, for the space of [illegible] the taxes thereon, with all [illegible] advertising, shall not be paid within [illegible] days [illegible] collector shall proceed to sell [illegible] necessary, in the manner [illegible] is distrained for [illegible] and out of the proceeds [illegible] all taxes charged upon such property, [illegible] of advertising and selling the same [illegible] similar to those provided in the preceding [illegible] for the purchase and re-sale of property which [illegible] sold for the amount of duty [illegible] shall be had with regard to property [illegible] this section. And any [illegible] from any sale herein provided for [illegible] into the Treasury, for the benefit of [illegible] the property. And the Secretary of [illegible] in any case where money [illegible] Treasury for the benefit of [illegible] property sold as aforesaid, to repay [illegible] proof being furnished that the [illegible] applying therefor is entitled to receive the [illegible]

FRIDAY MORNING OCT 10, 1862

Loss of the Bill to Guard the State Treasury against the Demands of the Rebels

We desire only to say a few words at the present time upon this subject We hold that treason should be treated as a reality There are but two sides to the controversy in which this nation is engaged Our Government in time past was too much disposed to treat the enemy with a rose water policy They have wakened to their error A citizen who sympathizes with the rebels is not a faithful citizen He would not fight for the existence of this Government if he could help it He would fight for and with the rebels if he was in a situation to do so We have abundant illustrations of this fact in our Southern sister State Members of the Legislature there thrust their hands into the State Treasury drew out money, and pushed off to join the rebels and make war upon the Government from which they had taken the money We have some illustrations of the same policy by other rebels They got their bonds for the Oregon war debt—for which the citizens of the loyal States are bound—and put off to join the rebels of the South These facts should be held in remembrance

It is no humiliation for a good citizen to take the oath of allegiance when he draws money from the State Treasury It is only a humiliation to those who feel a hostility—a hatred—to our Government If it be said the administration of the oath supposes disloyalty—we say that the taking of it should purge from disloyalty though it may well be doubted, (and this is the only possible objection to the proposed regulation) that the oath with a traitor would have no binding force

We not only regret that the bill referred to was defeated, but we would be in favor of a test oath to the electors We want traitors to be sifted out That was done in our Revolutionary war, and should be done now That man who cannot take a full and hearty oath to stand by the Government of this Nation, is not of us he would be against us under favorable circumstances British Columbia will open her arms to receive traitors from this coast, as Canada and Nova Scotia opened their arms to receive the rebels in the war of the Revolution While we condemn a "rose-water policy" in the East, we should not practice it here. We must regard treason as a reality to be met by stern rebuke

THE PENITENTIARY —The relocation of the Penitentiary, or rather the "Penitentiary question" is a knotty question for the present Legislature to determine The condition of things connected therewith is by no means clear to the minds of the members, as matters have become so thoroughly jumbled up that no one can arrive at a satisfactory conclusion as to what would be the best to do with it —The State is in a worse condition with the Penitentiary than the clown was with the elephant, for the clown could have ran off with his investment but the State can't shake off this much needed yet badly abused institution Something must be done with it, that's plain, but what to do with it, is the question As has been previously noticed the Legislature have appointed a special committee, consisting of Hon H G Hovey, of Benton county, on the part of the Senate, and Messrs Watson of Douglas, and Humason of Wasco counties, on the part of the House, to act in conjunction with the Governor, to enquire in to the expediency of relocating the Penitentiary, and also to select a suitable location, provided the same should be moved, and make report at as early a day as possible We learn that this committee commenced the investigation of this matter on Wednesday last Several sites in the vicinity of Salem were examined on that day, a visit to Lola, some four or five miles above Salem, was in contemplation on Thursday From this it would seem that the committee had settled one part of the question, to wit the removal of the Penitentiary from Portland We hope such may be the case, for the people of this part of the State have but little need of such an institution, and we are sure no greater nuisance can be found within our city We believe the suggestions of the Governor the very best thing that can be done, and shall expect to see them adopted by the Legislature

RAILROAD MEETING —We notice a call published in the Puget Sound papers, for a meeting of the Puget Sound and Columbia River Railroad Company, to take place to morrow at Steilacoom This company was chartered by an act of the last Legislature of that Territory, for the object of constructing a railroad from some point on the Columbia below the Cascades to Puget Sound A very important undertaking and we hope such action will be taken by the charter members that will result more favorably than was the case with the Columbia Transportation Company

We are glad to learn that Sergeant W W Thompson long a non commissioned officer in Major Lugenbeel's Company 9th Infantry, has been appointed Captain in the Regiment of Washington Territory Volunteers, vice Taylor, resigned Sergeant Thompson richly deserved this appointment

LATEST FROM THE EAST.

CHICAGO, Oct 1 —The [illegible] of the Louisville Journal [illegible] the Federal cavalry at Elizabethtown [illegible] with the Third Georgia cavalry and succeeded in capturing the entire regiment There was no information as to casualties on either side A gentleman who has opportunities of possessing information as to the movements of the enemy [illegible] that the whole number of Confederate troops [illegible] including 1000 [illegible] since they entered the State

LOUISVILLE, Oct 1 —A large portion of Buell's army moved out [illegible] Kentucky [illegible] different roads

The Democrat [illegible] skirmish between our troops and the rebels last evening, in which the Federals were successful

WASHINGTON, Oct 1 —A letter [illegible] dated Sept 26th says the rebel steamer Nashville is penned up in the Ogeechee river with no hope of escape [illegible] officer has been captured

The streets in Charleston are defended by rifle pits, and the bay obstructed by piles, fire rafts etc The [illegible] at the harbor Every one seems to think the city will be attacked [illegible] Our force has been considerably increased at Port Royal and vicinity The health of the troops is excellent

The Fingal ram is nearly complete at Savannah

A dispatch from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac to-day says General Pleasonton crossed the Potomac at Shepardstown this morning with a force of cavalry and artillery, for the purpose of making a reconnoissance in the enemy's rear information having been received that their army has fallen back He came up with them near Shepardstown and drove them towards Martinsburg from which place they were soon shelled by our artillery The loss is small It is believed there are very few rebels at Winchester the greater portion of them being encamped between there and Underwood

NEW YORK, Oct 1 —The statement that Sigel has resigned or is about to do so is denounced as a mischievous falsehood

New Orleans advices by the steamer Creole state that guerrilla bands are quite bold and harass Federal vessels greatly Commodore Farragut has ordered a naval force of four sixteen oared whaleboats, which are cruising day and night along the river Each carries one howitzer and a full crew One of them captured a band of 10 guerrillas who made a spirited resistance

In the expedition lately to Opelousas the Seventh Vermont lost 100 men, who were taken prisoners

WASHINGTON Oct 1 —There are now 18 000 patients in the hospitals here

Secretary Stanton has appointed Simeon Draper of New York Provost Marshal General of the War Department, a new office created a few days since

ST LOUIS, Oct 1 —General Schofield has advanced to Sarcoxie Jasper county, Missouri, from Springfield Gen Brown and Gen Totten are within supporting distance It is stated that 1,200 rebels are in that vicinity

CAIRO, Oct 1 —There has been no arrival from Memphis for twenty four hours Apprehensions are entertained that guerrillas are at work again That they swarm on the banks of the river between here and Memphis is well known Appearances seem to indicate a battle at Bolivar, Tennessee, before long Gen Grant's headquarters have been removed to Jackson

WASHINGTON Sept 30 —Exchanged prisoners who lately reached here from the rebel Capital, represent that there is most monstrous lying among the Confederate journals There is among the masses a truthful impression as to the result of the battle at Antietam, and consequently general depression among the citizens

The news from General McClellan is unimportant

A special to the New York papers says We have the authority of a gentleman of Gen Butler's staff for saying that Butler has already organized three regiments of Louisianians—one white, and two not so white

CINCINNATI, Oct 1 —It is reported that the rebel Generals Heath and Humphrey Marshall are pushing forward with the intention of intercepting General Morgan The force of the latter has been greatly augmented by recruits from East Tennessee, and with a strong force he will push his way through

NEW YORK, Oct 1 —The N Y Herald's Washington correspondent says, it is understood Eli Thayer's new appointment as Military Governor of Florida is with a view to enable him and those acting with him to carry out their scheme for the introduction to Southern States of a white population

A letter written from the army on the Upper Potomac says the rebels have begun the work of devastation on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bridges Culverts and embankments are being destroyed, excavations filled up and rail stock carried off

A letter from Pensacola says The harbor and defenses of Mobile have lately become a subject of close study in army and navy circles There are indications that they probably will soon be attacked Fort Morgan mounts ninety guns The channel runs close to the Fort, and is surrounded by the guns of Fort Morgan, and enfiladed by those of Fort Gaines, on Dauphin Island The letter adds that no considerable rebel force is garrisoning either Charleston, Mobile or Savannah but much has been done in the way of obstructing the channels and constructing defensive works along the water approaches to all three cities The harbor [Pensacola] is now filling fast with men of war of all grades and the fleet is already very formidable

WASHINGTON Oct 2 —D D Porter of the Navy has been appointed to the command of all the naval forces on the Mississippi river The force under his orders in vessels guns and men, will be larger than was ever before under the command of any United States naval officer His squadron will be distinct in every way from that of Admiral Farragut who still commands the Western Gulf squadron, his headquarters being at Pensacola

SPRINGFIELD, (Mo) Sept 30 —A highly responsible gentleman who has enjoyed the best opportunities for ascertaining the number and position of the rebel forces menacing our Southern border, and who has been in some of their camps within ten days represents that in Newton county fifty miles south of Granby, there are 4,500 men under Coffee and Shelby 7 miles west of Neosho in the same county, are 8,000 under General Cooper, half of them Indians and all well armed At Pea Ridge General Rains has 4,500 and General Correll 2,000 South of Forsythe Missouri just over the Arkansas line, General Parsons has 3,000 A short distance behind, McBride has 5,000 General Holmes has 17,000 at Little Rock Above 2,000 are within the boundary of Missouri on its south line The whole rebel force is under the command of General Holmes The rebels in all their camps indulge in confident expectations of wintering in St Louis, and entertain not a shadow of doubt of their ability to do so All citizens in Newton and McDonald counties of requisite age are seized and compelled to enter the rebel service under the Conscription Act or leave the country

[illegible] Hindman is said to be under arrest in consequence of a misunderstanding between himself and General Pike the precise cause of which is not known

MEMPHIS Sept 30 —An arrival from Helena Arkansas reports all quiet in that vicinity A large number of contrabands are there working on the fortifications

The Grenada Appeal of Sept 27th indulges in the usual amount of lying in regard to the battle of Iuka and claims a complete rebel victory It says that one hour more of daylight and a whole Yankee division would have been captured, It does not, however give any reasons for Price's retreat but acknowledges the number of killed, wounded and missing to have been 180

THE INDIAN TROUBLES—INDIANS DEFEATED—CHICAGO, Oct 1st —A letter from Fort Abercrombie Sept 22d says For four weeks we have been surrounded by large bands of Indians They have made two attacks already Half breeds in the Fort think they have gone to get assistance from the [illegible] Some days since they came within a hundred yards of the Fort, and drove off two hundred and fifty head of cattle and horses Four days later they made a fierce attack The fight lasted two hours, when the Indians withdrew taking all their dead and wounded At three o'clock in the morning, the pickets discovered their approach in large force Spreading out, they soon completely surrounded the fort attacking it from four sides The numbers engaged are variously estimated at from 100 to 600 The fight lasted five hours The loss of the enemy must have been great, the fire from the howitzers telling with terrific effect In their retreat they carried off their dead The inhabitants of the towns of Breckinridge, Evansville Georgetown Pomme de Terre and Chippewa, have left and the whole country for two hundred miles is deserted It has been nearly five weeks since a mail arrived at the fort, and but one messenger came through from St Cloud The mail carrier between Georgetown and Pembina reports that the Red Lake Indians show no hostile symptoms yet For a week some 1,500 Indians and half breeds have been gathered at Grand Forks, the place selected for the treaty Becoming dissatisfied, the Pembina Indians drove off all the cattle the Red Lake Indians however, interfered, and the cattle were returned

CHICAGO, Oct 1st.—The St Paul Press of September 8th says A party of Winnebagoes made an attack on the Norwegian settlements south side of north fork of the Watonwan, near Medelia and killed four persons This new outbreak is followed by a stampede of the remaining settlers in the vicinity A body of our mounted men has been sent in pursuit of the Indians. It was believed they would be overtaken and punished Col Sibley's official report of the battle near Wood Lake says a severe chastisement was inflicted on the Indians, and so far subdued their ardor that they sent a flag of truce into the camp to state that they were not strong enough to fight us, and desired peace

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN [illegible] Book Store and at [illegible]

FROM THE CASCADES.—The Julia arrived last night about eight o'clock from the Cascades, bringing down between forty and fifty passengers and some thirty head of horses. Most of the passengers were miners from John Day and Powder river, who had started to come over the [illegible] the mountains but found it impossible to get through that way. They had to return to the Dalles and take passage on the steamer. We are indebted to Wells, Fargo & Co. for a late copy of the Mountaineer. No news of importance from the mines, and no dust brought down, as the express line failed to connect above the Dalles. We learn that another serious accident has happened to the steamer Tenino on Tuesday last. She ran upon the rocks at John Day's rapids, tearing off one wheel, and otherwise damaging her hull and machinery, which will probably prevent her from running for several days. She will be brought down to Celilo for repairs immediately.

INSANE ASYLUM.—By reference to the new advertisements it will be seen that the proprietors of this Institution, who have recently obtained a contract from the State for the keeping of all insane and idiotic persons at the expense of the State, are now prepared to receive them from the different counties which may have such unfortunate persons in charge. County Judges are particularly requested to attend the removal of such cases to the Asylum before the setting in of bad weather, as considerable expense can thereby be saved to the [illegible] which might otherwise accrue in case [illegible]

[illegible]—Our readers will excuse us for [illegible] so many new advertisements which have crowded out several elegant editorials [illegible] have published and not yet written [illegible] at our advertising columns will explain what we are unable to describe.

OYSTERS.—Fresh testaceous mollusks and [illegible] animals can be had at all hours [illegible] in the latest and most approved style [illegible] Dekum's, on First street, needing [illegible] be tasted to be appreciated. Hats [illegible] a-muck.

[illegible] FUND IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—We learn from the Washington Standard [illegible] October 4th, that the people of Olympia [illegible] a meeting for the purpose of bringing [illegible] a concert of action by the people of the Territory in contributing to the U. S. [illegible] Commission Fund. The meeting was well attended, and a proper interest exhibited in this most praiseworthy object. A Territorial Commission, consisting of Messrs. [illegible] Evans, G. A. Barnes and F. F. Mc[illegible] was appointed with authority to adopt [illegible] efficient means to solicit and receive [illegible] throughout the whole Territory, and Gen. W. W. Miller was elected Treasurer to receive and forward said amount [illegible] Sanitary Commission for distribution. We are pleased to see our neighbors [illegible] action in this matter, and doubt [illegible] Washington Territory will not be [illegible] responding to the calls for help from [illegible] wounded and sick soldiers who [illegible] nobly defended the Constitution and [illegible] country.

[illegible] Cruz dates of Sept. 19th say the [illegible] have taken possession of La Soledad [illegible] Vera Cruz and Orizaba, and garrison [illegible] their object being to secure a communication between the two cities. It is reported at Vera Cruz that the typhoid fever is [illegible] dreadful ravages in the Mexican army, and that General Zaragoza died of it. Forey [illegible] in-chief of the Army, is expected at Vera Cruz in a day or two from Mar[illegible] The march of the army on Mexico [illegible] to commence about the middle of [illegible]

[illegible] PRIVATEERS.—By a letter received from the East from the United States [illegible] at Matanzas, we have a confirmation [illegible] that the privateer steamer Oreto [illegible] called the Florida, arrived at Cardenas on the 19th of August. LITTLE BY LITTLE

One step and then another
And the longest walk is ended
One stitch and then another
And the largest rent is mended
One brick upon another
And slowly the wall is made
One flake upon another
And the deepest snow is laid

So the little coral workers
By their slow but constant motion
Have built those pretty islands
In the distant dark blue ocean
And the noblest undertakings
Man's wisdom hath conceived
By oft repeated efforts
Have been patiently achieved

Then do not look disheartened
O'er the work you have to do
And say that such a mighty task
You never can get through
But just endeavor day by day
Another point to gain
And soon the mountain which you feared
Will prove to be a plain

Rome was not built in one day
The ancient proverb teaches
And Nature by her trees and flowers
The same sweet sermon preaches
Think not of far off duties
But of duties which are near
And having once begun to work
Resolve to persevere

Sowing Little Seed.

Little Bessie had got a present of a new book, and she eagerly opened it to look at the first picture It was the picture of a boy sitting by the side of a stream, and throwing seeds into the water

"I wonder what this picture is about" said she, "why does the boy throw seeds into the water?"

"O, I know," said her brother Edward who had been looking at the book, "he is sowing the seeds of water lillies"

"But how small the seeds look," said Bessie "It seems strange to think that large plants should grow from such little things"

"You are sowing just such tiny seeds every day, Bessie, and they will come up large strong plants after awhile," said her father

"O, no, father! I have not planted any seeds for a long time"

"I have seen my daughter sow a number of seeds to-day"

Bessie looked puzzled, and her father smiled, and said,

"Yes, I have watched you planting trees and flowers, and weeds, to-day"

"Now, I know that you are joking, for I would not plant ugly weeds"

"I shall have to tell you what I mean When you laid aside that interesting book, and attended to what your brother wished done, you were sowing seeds of kindness and love. When you broke the dish that you knew your mother valued, and came instantly and told her, you were sowing seeds of truth When you took the cup of cold water to the poor woman at the gate, you were sowing seeds of mercy These are all beautiful flowers, Bessie, and will grow up brightly and sweetly, if you water them well by a constant repetition of these acts But, more than all, I hope that my little girl has been planting the great tree 'of love to God,' and that she will tend and watch it, and allow it to grow and spread, until its branches reach the skies, and meet before His throne"

"And the weeds, father?"

"When you were impatient while baby was cross, you sowed the seeds of ill temper When you spoke crossly to Robert, you planted anger When you waited some time after your mother had called you, you sowed the seeds of disobedience and selfishness. These are all noxious weeds Pull them up by the root, my child Do not suffer them to grow in your garden, or they will completely overrun it"—Christian Register

A MANUFACTURER and vender of quack medicines wrote to a friend for a strong recommendation of his (the manufacturer's) "Balsam" In a few days he received the following which we call pretty strong "Sir—The land composing this farm has hitherto been so poor that a Scotchman could not get his living off it, and so stony that we had to slice our potatoes and plant them edgeways; but hearing of your balsam, I put some on the corner of a ten acre field surrounded by a rail fence, and in the morning I found that the rock had entirely disappeared, a neat stone wall encircled the field, and the rails were split into firewood and piled up symmetrically in my back yard. I put half an ounce in the middle of a huckleberry swamp—in two days it was cleared off, planted with corn and pumpkins, and a row of peach trees in full blossom through the middle As an evidence of its tremendous strength, I would say that it drew a striking likeness of my eldest son out of a mill pond, drew a blister all over his stomach, drew a load of potatoes four miles to market, and eventually drew a prize of ninety seven dollars in a lottery

CURIOSITIES OF NATURE — Among the papers published in costly style by the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, is the microscopic plants and animals which live on and in the human body It describes quite a number of insects The animal which produces the disease called the itch, is illustrated by an engraving half an inch in diameter, which shows not only the ugly little fellow's body and legs but his very toes, although the animal himself is entirely invisible to the naked eye When Lieutenant Berryman was sounding the ocean preparatory to laying the Atlantic telegraph, the quill at the end of the sounding line brought up mud, which on being dried, became a powder so fine that on rubbing it between the thumb and finger, it disappeared between the crevices of the skin — On placing the dust under the microscope, it was discovered to consist of millions of perfect shells, each of which had a living animal

PICKLING APPLES —Take not over large sweet apples, pare them, then in each one put a few cloves To ten pounds of apples allow three pounds of sugar, a pint and a half of vinegar, and spices tied up in a cloth—cloves and cinnamon Boil the apples until tender, taking them out as they become so, boil your syrup but a little longer, then turn over them
